Gov. Bobby Jindal is traveling to Florida this weekend to raise campaign cash for himself and to stump for Republican presidential candidate John McCain.

At 1 p.m. Saturday, Jindal is scheduled to attend a fundraiser in Alachua, Fla.

The news release from his office says the fundraiser is “before the LSU Tigers-University of Florida Gators Game.”

At 4 p.m., Jindal will appear at a tailgate and rally for McCain in Gainesville on the University of Florida campus.

The governor’s press secretary, Melissa Sellers, said Jindal does not plan to go to the game.
