Days after returning from Philadelphia, Gov. Bobby Jindal is jetting off again, this time to raise campaign cash.

Jindal will be in Texas today and Friday.

Today, he is holding a re-election fundraiser in San Antonio.

He will travel to Houston on Friday for a second fundraiser.

The governor's communications director, Melissa Sellers, could not provide information Wednesday on the hosts of the fundraisers. She said both fundraisers are private events.

Earlier in the week, Jindal flew to Philadelphia to meet with President-elect Barack Obama.

In recent months, he has focus heavily on fundraising, both for himself and for fellow Republicans in other states.
